Access to your personal information

Aurablue Electric provides access to the personal information that we hold about you. You have a right to access the personal information that Aurablue Electric hold's about you. We aim to ensure that your personal information that we hold is accurate, complete and up to date. We take all reasonable steps to correct any information you find inaccurate. To assist us with this, please contact us as soon as possible if you are aware of any changes required to your personal information. Should we deny access and or refuse to correct your personal information, we will provide you with reasons that will be based on the grounds provided by the privacy Act. If you require access to your personal information please contact our office on office@aurablue.com.au.

Complaints

If you have any complaints about our privacy practices or wish to make a complaint about how your personal information is managed please contact our office.

Security of information collected

We store and hold your personal information securely through physical and electronic means. We will take all reasonable steps to protect the security of the personal information that we hold ensuring that personal information is not misused, lost or subject to unauthorised access or use. This includes appropriate measures to protect electronic materials and materials stored and generated in hard copy. We will also take action as required by law to destroy any personal information about you that we no longer require.

Contract

We do not contract out data storage or processing functions.

If the Aurablue Electric does contract out, we would take measures to protect the information by ensuring contractors meet the same standards of privacy as employees of Aurablue Electric.

Use and disclosure

Aurablue Electric will only use or disclose your personal information for the purpose of providing goods and services to you, or your requests for goods and services. This may include passing information onto our employees, suppliers, client's/customer's and other contractors for the purpose of fulfilling your requirements and administering our company. If the personal information is to be used or disclosed for additional purposes we will seek your consent prior to proceeding. In special circumstances, for example if we sell our company or a substantial part of our company your information may be transferred as part of that sale. We will not use your information for purposes unrelated to the services we provide, unless we first obtain consent from you.

Personal information is collected for the purpose of:

- Providing goods and or services you require from our company.
- The smooth running of our company.
- Assessing your suitability for a type of job or position.
- Processing payments.

Aurablue Electric will disclose this information to:

- Prospective employers.
- Our service providers.
- Our insurer/s (if necessary).
- All other reasonable parties that will assist us in administering our company.

Legal reasons why we collect the personal information

We collect the information in order to comply with our legal obligations. If you choose not to provide Aurablue Electric with personal details we may not be able to provide you with the full range of our services including recruitment. In reference to employment it will also restrict the list of potential employment targets or positions within our organisations. We may reduce the net payment earned by you or your business if certain details are not disclosed and provided by suppliers and team member employees with regard to the taxation laws.

Sources of information

Candidates and Team member Employees

Where possible, Aurablue Electric will collect the information directly from the prospective candidates. However, in some cases we may receive personal information from referees or people that have worked with or are working with the candidate. For example a colleague may express to us that the candidate could have potential in a position that we are recruiting for.

If the personal information was collected not from the candidate but from another party, Aurablue Electric must take reasonable steps to inform that individual of the collection.

Customers and Suppliers

Where possible Aurablue Electric will collect the information directly from the clients/customers and suppliers. However, in some cases we may receive personal information from other people that have recommended you or our services.
